VOTES BROUGHT IN DURING THANKSGIVING

The Contest Department of The Star took a holiday yesterday along with other hard-working people, and this morning found a considerable budget of accumulated business to check up. Few changes have been made in the positions of candidates, although several have pulled up considerably—among them Miss Johanna Drew.

Contest Manager Will J. Cooper will return tomorrow morning from Hilo and will resume his office work. In his absence the business of the Contest Department has been kept carefully checked. All originals or duplicates of subscription transactions, vote vouchers, etc., have been so arranged that he can go over them readily for re-checking.

HUNDREDS IN DANGER IN BATTLE WITH INDIANS
YUMA (Ariz.), November 19.—Hundreds of men, women and children,
gathered around a circus tent, narrowly escaped death or injury here
today in a revolver battle between peace officers and three Indians from the Yuma reservation. The red men were arrested for creating a disturbance in a side show and were being led from the tent when one of them drew a revolver and began shooting. The others followed his example and soon a general battle
was on. Bystanders sought safety behind tents and under wagons, and,
so far as known, not one was struck by a bullet, although a score or more shots were fired. One of the resisting Indians was shot and probably fatally wounded.

STAR NEWSBOYS HAVE A GREAT DAY

The newsboys of the Hawaiian Star had the "time of their lives" yesterday. They say so themselves, and surely they are the best judges of the matter. From 11 a. m. to a late hour in the afternoon they were the guests of the paper, as is the annual custom; and the events were so numerous that there was "something doing" all the time.

At the hour above mentioned the juvenile merchants assembled at The Star office and were taken in charge by Mr. Jackson, of the advertising department, and his assistants. Every boy present was a "Star boy"—no extras being gathered up from the streets for the sake of a showing.

At 11:15 the happy, expectant band marched in column of twos to the Empire theater, reaching there at the beginning of the special morning program. The features were excellent, and the youngsters had an hour of the best sort of fun.

From the Empire the newsies marched, as before, to the Palm Cafe, where a rich turkey dinner, with fruits and candies, was in waiting. It is needless to say what happened. After the dinner the boys were given the usual horns and noise-makers. Again it is needless to say what happened.

Promptly at 1:30 the big special car hove in sight from the direction of Waikeiki, bearing the legend: "Clear the Road for the Hawaiian Star Newsboys," on a banner above the guard.

All boarded the car at Fort and King streets, made the run out to Kahanuiki and back and thence out to Waikeiki. At Kapiolani Park they found two baseball teams of the Hawaiian Star lined up and ready to play a red-hot game for the special benefit of the youngsters. They were Composing Room vs. Job Department & Bindery, captained by Foreman Abel S. Nasclemento and C. A. Rawlins, respectively. A few minutes later a wagon arrived from the Arctic Soda Works with refreshments for all hands. The game of baseball was fast and furious,
and resulted in a victory for the Composing Room, etc., by a score of 8 to 6.
There was a barrel of fun to the game,
and the little fellows enjoyed it to the limit.

At about 4:30 o'clock all of the boys, tired but happy, boarded the car for town.

The following note, referring to the behavior of the boys at the Empire theater, should be of special interest to them and their friends:

Honolulu, Nov. 30, 1911.
Mr. L. D. Timmons, Manager Hawaiian Star.

Dear sir: I wish to compliment The Star upon the neat appearance and excellent behavior of its large band of newsboys during their hour at the Empire theater this morning. It is usually the case that boys in such numbers will be noisy, and more or less of a strain upon the nerves of the management of a theater such as ours. But I am gratified to say that The Star boys who are among the coming voters of Honolulu proved the exception to the rule, behaving in every way like little gentlemen.

Yours truly,
HONOLULU AMUSEMENT CO., LTD.
By J. H. Magoon, assistant manager.
And the following is what the Palm Cafe had to say of the smart little fellows:

Honolulu, Hawaii, Nov. 30, 1911.
Manager Hawaiian Star, Honolulu.

Dear sir: You have every reason to be proud of the "Star newsboys." We had them at the Palm Cafe for their Thanksgiving dinner at noon today, and have never entertained a better behaved bunch of youngsters. They were neither noisy nor rude, giving us far less trouble than we had expected from a band of boys out for a holiday. We wish to compliment them heartily.

Respectfully yours,
PALM CAFE,
M. A. Jungclauss.

THE NOISELESS TYPEWRITER

The Waterhouse Co., Ltd., received their first shipment of Noiseless Typewriters by the last boat, and from information obtained at their offices, this wonderful machine appears to have taken the town by storm. Demonstrations being given to all callers, either at the Stangenwald building or 14 Queen street, prove that all who have seen this remarkable machine in action realize immediately that the noiseless operation of the machine has been obtained without sacrificing those features of efficiency, facility and durability which characterize the recognized typewriter of the present day.

During the operation of the machine the only sound conveyed to the ear is the soft drumming of the finger tips upon the keys of the machine. Even in the court room, it is said, it will be unnecessary for the reporters to retire while transcribing their notes, since it will be possible to operate the Noiseless machine during the regular course of the trial in the same room without interrupting the proceedings of the court.

If once we get rid of the trees;
So puddles and swamps we'll wade
through, tra la,
To grub up bananas for you, tra la,
And puncture your travelers' trees;
O, we'll also look out for our fees!
Ah! that is just what we are going
to do—
The spineless old public we're going
to do,
Tra la la la, Tra la la la.
Vive la bagatelle! Blue.

The bug-hunters don't know it all,
